Getting a job - The Navitas Difference

To get a job in Australia you need more than just a degree! Most companies will ask you to show evidence of some work experience before they will consider your application. But how do you gain work experience and how do you show evidence of this to a potential employer? The Professional Year Program incorporates a vocational placement allowing you to develop practical work skills through a 12 week professional internship.

Gaining work experience, having a great CV and a work reference from an Australian company will push you ahead of other applicants in the race to join the Australian workforce.

“Network and make yourself indispensable!”

Full time employment with host company after graduation!

“I was lucky enough to get my internship at the head office of a large ‘Aged Care Home Company’ and when I started there, it was a small IT team. A great deal of IT work was given to an outside consultancy company and I saw an opportunity in this. I made it my goal to get to know as many of the people in the company as possible and ask them their thoughts on what they would want from an IT department and how we could help them. I got a lot of support from the managers there and started to change a few things there as well.

I took responsibility for a number of projects and ensured that any promises we made were followed through. Basically, I decided to make myself as indispensable as possible. At the end of my internship the company offered me a full time position and stopped using the outside consultancy firm as much, preferring to keep the majority of the IT work ‘in-house’. The advice I would give anyone is to network yourself as much as possible within your host company and spend 12 weeks trying to make yourself indispensable. It worked for me!”

“The internship team at Navitas gave me confidence!”

Full time employment with host company after graduation!

“I recently completed the Professional Year Program with Navitas and have been employed in a full-time position with my ‘Host Company’. The internship was for the last 12 weeks and I was lucky enough to do mine at a large property & construction company. There everyone was very friendly and helpful to me, helping me to understand how the finance team fits in to the business as a whole. Initially I was quite shy but everyone made me feel so welcome and I really felt part of the team making some great new friends. The work was challenging but I really enjoyed putting into practice my technical knowledge. I worked on Accounts work, preparation of BAS returns and General ledger reconciliations.

The internship team at Navitas really helped me with preparing for my interviews and helped me along with my confidence during my internship. As a result of this I was able to take on more responsibility and have now been offered a permanent position at the company. This for me was the perfect result!”
